PricewaterhouseCoopers provides Christmas Party dinner to Bethany House of Northern Virginia's clients

ALEXANDRIA, VA- Bethany House of Northern Virginia, Inc. (Bethany House), a Christian nonprofit dedicated to assisting victims of domestic violence, received both a food donation and volunteer time from a group of workers from PricewaterhouseCoopers.

“We were excited to have PricewaterhouseCoopers provide dinner for the annual Christmas Party for our clients,” said Cathy Hassinger, Executive Director of Bethany House. “We appreciate the work they put into gathering donations and giving of their time to participate in this special event.”

PricewaterhouseCoopers received food donations from Harris Teeter, The Cheesecake Factory, Maggiano's Little Italy, and other local businesses in the community. Some of the employees also contributed through donating gift cards for the clients.

“It was nice not to worry about the meal this year,” said Naomi Collins, Development Associate at Bethany House. “PricewaterhouseCoopers did an excellent job and we were thankful for both their generosity and time.”

Bethany House hosts a Christmas Party for its current and former clients (women and their children) every year in December. The party consists of a meal, singing carols, reading of the Christmas story from the book of Luke, crafts for the children, and handing out gifts to the women and children.

“We want Bethany House to contact us for the holiday party next year,” said Phillip Maughan, PricewaterhouseCoopers Financial Services and leader of the PricewaterhouseCoopers volunteer group. “We were glad to help.”
